

SHIRLEY BRINKERHOFF MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Established in memory of Shirley Brinkerhoff

A much-loved writer, editor, mentor, and encourager for MCWC conferees.

- Designated for a writer who is actively involved in honing the craft of writing but who has not yet secured a publishing contract.
- Award: $200 toward tuition to Montrose Christian Writers Conference

Guidelines for eligibility:

- Writers who are committed to growing in the craft of communication and actively involved in writing but who have not yet received a publishing contract may apply.

- Fill out a one-page application (see below).

- Write an essay of 300 words or less entitled, "How My Writing Reflects God's Heart".

- Submit application and essay by June 5 to:

Montrose Christian Writers Conference
218 Locust St.
Montrose, PA 18801

- Winner will be notified by July 15

Application for the
SHIRLEY BRINKERHOFF MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
THEME: HOW MY WRITING REFLECTS GOD'S HEART

1. Name:

2. Address:

3. Phone Number:

4. E-mail Address:

5. Years you have previously attended MCWC:

6. Number of years you have been writing:

7. Genres in which you write:

8. Publications or Writing Experience:

9. Writing Goals or Aspirations:

10. On a separate page, please write an essay of 300 words or less on the topic: "How My Writing Reflects God's Heart" (Please double space your entry.)